NEW YORK, Oct. 1, 1862. Yes, ladies, the fashions! War has its cisims, but are not telegrams, bulletin boards and dailies, enough. If nine col-umns out of ten of the Leanum are given over to the quictude of "our grand army," "raids in Kentucky," "officers' quarrels." "raids in Kentucky," "officers' quarrels," guerrillas, and war news generally, may not we women folk have a page of recreation now and then ?

The President's proclamation has been received and discussed, and the people have cried good and clapped their hands till their throats are sore and their palms blistered. "We always knew he would," and there is no more to be said, until we are ready to demand an unconditional emancipation for everything that wears the fetters of a slave, which we shall do the 1st day of January, 1868. FIRST DISPATCH. GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS, JACKSON, }
Tenn., Oct. 4—8 a. s. }
To Major General Halleck:—Yesterday
the rebels, under Price, Van Dorn and Lovell, were repulsed from their attack upon Corinth with great slaughter. The enemy are in full retreat leaving their dead and wounded on the field. General Rosecrans telegraps that our loss is serious, particularly in officers, but bears no comparison with that of the enemy. General Hackleman fell while gallantly leading his brigads. General Ogleby is dangerously wounded. General McPhorson with his command reached Corinth yesterday. General Rosseranz pursued the retreat-ing enemy this morning, and should they attempt to move towards Bolivar, will fol-low to that place.

General Hurlburt is at the Hatchie River with 5,000 or 6,000 men, and is no doubt with the pursuing column. From 700 to 1,000 prisoners, besides the wounded, are left in our hands.

Major General Commanding.

SECOND DISPATCH. GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS. JACKSON, TENN., Oct. 5. To Major General H. W. Hulleck: General Ord, who followed General Hurlbut, met the enemy to-day on the south side of patch, and drove them across the stream our troops General Ord took two batteries and about 200 prisoners. A large portion of General Rosecrans' force was at Che valla. At this distance everything looks most favorable, and I cannot see how the enemy are to escape without losing everything but their small arms.
